Series: The Good Samaritan

Title: The Good Samaritan, Part 3 of 3

Today we emphasize the themes of Goodness and Love.

The heart refers to the _____ Soul refers to _____

Strength refers to _____, _____, and _____

Mind refers to _____ and thinking through all the steps in the process.

Three movements of Goodness and Love by the Samaritan led to the sufferer's healing:

---

---

Reflections

A typical lesson of this parable is, Be like the Samaritan but we would do well not to demonize the priest and the Levite. Jesus did not choose the priest and the Levite because they were the worst but because they were the best and had a record of serving God faithfully. If they are terrible people, the parable loses its force.

We would also do well to remember the good reasons why we pass by on the other side. Can you recall a time when you saw the need to help someone but were already on the way to another urgent situation?

Just as we know little about the victim, we know little about the Samaritan. To what extent does information play a role in helping and loving others? What type of information?

---

Helping strangers in need and intentional discipleship can be a powerful combo ministry. Why do you think intentional help with practical needs can pave the way for a spiritual conversation?

---
