THANK YOU! Once again the good people of BUMC have shown your kindness as Sarah has progressed through the ER, ICU, hospital stay, rehab and now Gloucester House. Both Sarah and I thank you immensely for your continuous support with your prayers, visits, cards, calls, meals and more. We feel fortunate to be part of this wonderful congregation.
- Clair and Sarah Hillard

Name Tags – Please be sure to wear your name tags to help Pastor John and Jurah get to know us!

Pastor John’s office hours are Monday – Thursday, 9:00 am until 3:00 pm (lunch from noon until 1:00 pm.) His cell phone number is 804-384-3521 and email address is johnchoi@vaumc.org.

Jubilee Churches - In June, Jubilee Churches provided support to 8 households providing a total of $3,892.99 in essential support - assistance was provided for rent, Dominion power and water bills. The current balance of the Jubilee Fund is $2,464.99 - additional funding would be more than welcome!

A client who had previously relied on our winter shelter program is now no longer homeless. With your help, we secured safe housing for her and covered the first month’s rent so she could move into a room of her own. Her journey from shelter to stability is a testament to what we can accomplish together. Thank you for being a vital part of this work—your generosity is changing lives.

Mid-Year Financial Update

The 2025 Budget Profit and Loss vs Actual report through June 30th, has been posted on the bulletin board outside of the office. Additionally, the “Virginia United Methodist Foundation” report for June was also posted for additional transparency. As reported on the P&L vs Actual report, the General Fund Budget is 7% ($22,363) below the amount needed for the first 6 months to meet the 2025 budget.
