BETHANY NEWS – Sunday, November 2, 2025

Altar Flowers are given today by Paul and Nancy Kendall.

To our Bethany Family and Friends,

In September 2023 Fred was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer that had metastasized to his liver. We have been on this journey of treatments with each of you thru your prayers and ALL your acts of kindness for both of us. We now ask for your continued prayers as Fred and I will be traveling on November 1 to MD Anderson Cancer Center in Houston, Texas, for an appointment with a pancreatic specialist on Monday, November 3. We remain Hopeful and know that our Faith will carry us forward thru the Grace of God and we remember it is His Will and not ours.

- Jane and Fred Niethamer

The outpouring of love, prayers, hugs, concern, food and cards has been humbling. My mother loved our Bethany family and always enjoyed her time here - - especially the meals. Thank you to all! Donna & Jeff Lane & family.

JOY CIRCLE will meet Tuesday, November 4 at 7:00 pm in the Friendship Class. Pastor John will lead our program, “Life before Bethany.” All ladies of the church are invited to attend.

Pastor's Sunday School

About twenty people are attending Pastor's Sunday School at 9:45 a.m. in the fellowship hall through November. If you are not in a Sunday School class and would enjoy learning with one another in a small group setting (you don't have to speak), please join us.

The S/PPRC will meet Wednesday, November 5th at 5:30 pm.

The Hospitality Committee would like to thank all those who helped with setting up the social hall, food and clean up for the funeral of David Chapin. Your assistance was most appreciated.
